

理工－貝爾英語中心 MPI-Bell Centre of English

English for Macao 澳門日常交際英語

Why do so many people fail to learn English effectively? Often it's because the English you learn is not relevant to your needs. As a result, you lose motivation, become frustrated and give up.

This course recognises that, when it comes to learning a language, if you don't use it, you lose it! English for Macao will help you to remember the language you learn by focusing on those areas you're likely to need in your daily life here in Macao. In other words, the language you learn will be relevant, interesting, and practical!

The English for Macao course will help you in the following areas:

- Meeting Tourists: Talking about Macao, giving directions, answering questions.
- Wining & Dining: Coping in western restaurants where the waiters don't speak Chinese, and the menu is in English.
- Dealing with non-native English speakers: Communicating with cleaners, security guards, and domestic helpers from overseas.
- Working with foreign colleagues: Understanding cultural differences, and communicating effectively with colleagues from abroad.
- Going on holiday: Using English when you travel to foreign countries such as Thailand.
- Using the internet: Making use of the World Wide Web in English.
- Going shopping: Asking questions, placing orders, and buying successfully – the art of shopping in English.
- Becoming a Culture Vulture: Making the most of cultural events in Macau, including theatre, the cinema, festivals, and shows.
- Understanding the news: Understanding the news in English, whether through understanding English television or reading English-language newspapers.
- Taking care of children: Dealing with teachers and administrators at your children's school; attending birthday parties with your children.

This course is suitable for both Chinese speakers and other nationalities living in Macao.

English for Macao is available at two-levels.

- English for Macao (Essentials): a lower level course for those who need to know the most important language for communicating in English.
- English for Macao (Advanced): a higher level course for those who need to build the confidence to use English more frequently in their daily lives.

Course Duration: 50 hours. Lessons will take place twice a week, starting at 7pm, with each class lasting for 2 hours. Other times can be arranged for you and your friends; just contact us.

Your Trainer: Your trainer for this course will be a highly experienced native English speaker. Throughout the course you will perform realistic tasks. You will receive feedback on your strengths and weaknesses, and guidance as to how to communicate more effectively in English.