Declaration

In response to the complaints by the former English training staff David Anthony Quartermain published in the English newspaper Macau Daily Times on 31 July 2018, which were exaggerated and baseless remarks, we hereby make the following declaration:

In view of the fact that the report and the remarks have detrimental effect to the reputation of the Macao Polytechnic Institute and cause harm to MPI staff and students, based on the legal advice we have received, MPI brings a prosecution against David Anthony Quartermain at the Public Prosecutions Office for public defamation of MPI and other possible consequential legal liabilities.
