

Convoy Insurance Brokers (Macau) Limited

For the rapid economic growth of Macau, Convoy Financial Group has been expanding its financial planning business as one of the financial hub in Asia Pacific Region. In line with the Group's regional expansion strategy, Convoy Insurance Brokers (Macau) Limited established in 2011 and it has been pride itself in giving corporations and local individuals the most comprehensive range of financial services and wealth management solutions, such as medical, life insurance and retirement planning. The local presence gives Convoy Insurance Brokers (Macau) an insight into insurance market in Macau and can provide professional and impartial solutions to suite clients' needs. Our financial consultants will always act as a neutral representative, to present the best suitable services for both maximum protection from potential risk and the best value return, in order to assist clients achieve financial objectives.

Financial Consultant

Job Description

- To promote full range of financial services to new customers
- To communicate and build up relationship with customers

Requirements

- Degree holder, finance-related subjects preferred
- A self-confident, outgoing, energetic and team player
- Good communication skill with analytical mind
- Previous working experience is an advantage
- With IFA background may be considered as Senior Consultant

We offer professional training, attractive remuneration package and promising career prospect to successful candidate. We are looking forward to meet a potential candidate as great as you.

All personal data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only.