Description

This course studies the role of marketing in society. It focuses on markets, marketing institutions, and marketing functions with emphasis on product, price, marketing communication, and marketing channel decisions.

Additional Description:

In providing an introductory examination of marketing, this course will cover the basic principles of marketing. Core concepts related to (i) consumer orientation, (ii) reward for the company; (iii) appreciation and use of marketing research; and (iv) coordination of elements of the marketing mix will be covered.

Learning Outcomes

After completing the course, students will be able to:

1. explain how the marketing process is used in creating and capturing customer value;
2. analyze the importance of understanding the marketplace and customer needs;
3. design a customer-driven marketing strategy by selecting the target market and choosing a value proposition;
4. identify the four basic variables in the marketing mix: product, promotion, price, and distribution;
5. apply the basic tools of marketing such as analytical, communication, and presentation skills through interactive classroom exercises and other activities.
